To purchase an instrument under the Assisted Instrument Purchase Scheme your child must fulfil the following criteria:

- Attend an LEA maintained school
- Take the instrument to school or LEA premises on a weekly basis for tuition or use during lessons
- Purchase an instrument suitable for their stage of musical development
- Take delivery of the instrument on the school or Music Service premises
- Buy an instrument appropriate to their needs and level of attainment. In other words a professional quality instrument purchased for a relative beginner will not qualify for VAT relief

Please order this instrument for my child through the Assisted Instrument Purchase Scheme. I confirm that my child meets the above criteria and enclose a cheque payable to North Somerset Council for the amount stated above (Please note, the instrument will not be ordered until your cheque has cleared).
