

A box full of memories

With the help of older people across the district, North Somerset Museum has developed a series of reminiscence boxes, which are available for loan throughout North Somerset's libraries.

The boxes have been designed as a useful and enjoyable tool for sharing memories in a hands-on way. They're a great resource for older people, and particularly those who would not be able to visit the museum.

Boxes can be borrowed by anyone with a North Somerset library group ticket. For information on how to obtain a group ticket please contact: 01934 426 010.

Boxes are available for three weeks at a charge of £5. Loans can be arranged through your nearest North Somerset library. Please note boxes returned late will incur a £1 fine per week.

Library locations, contact details and opening times are available on the website: www.n-somerset.gov.uk or telephone 01934 426 010

For any information regarding the reminiscence box scheme, contact North Somerset Museum on 01934 621 028.

Council documents can be made available in large print, audio, easy read and other formats. Documents on our website can also be emailed to you as plain text files.

Help is also available for people who require council information in languages other than English.

Reminiscence boxes

There are five boxes, each of which contains images and objects from the museum's collections which people can handle.

Each box explores a different theme:

- at home
- leisure and transport
- events
- childhood
- the home front.
