Library Service

Purpose of the role:

To deliver library books and other library materials to customers who are unable to visit the library in person. Volunteers choose the books for the customer, deliver them and return finished books back to the library. While this is not a befriending role, many customers have limited social contact and really value the opportunity to be visited and have a chat with someone.

Main tasks and activities may include:

- Select items for customers using individual customer profiles and issue them using the self-service machines;
- Deliver books to customers in their homes, on a regular day and at a pre-arranged time;
- Return all items that customers have finished with to the library and check them back in using self-service machines;
- Place request for customers using the LibrariesWest catalogue.

Volunteers will have these qualities, skills and experiences:

You do not need to have any previous experience of volunteering or working in a library. For this role you will need:

- An interest in libraries and desire to be an advocate for the service;
- A love of books and reading so you can choose books for customers, recommend authors and share your interest;
- Good communication skills
- To be reliable;
- To enjoy meeting new people;
- To be organised and motivated.

Types of training and resources available to support volunteers:

- An Induction which explains how the library service operates and outlines all the policies and procedures that you will need to know;

- A tour of the library at which you will be volunteering;
- Information about the resources available to help you choose books for others and how to use the LibrariesWest catalogue;
- Dementia Friends training;
- Introductions to members of staff and other volunteers, alongside whom you will be volunteering;
- Out of pocket expenses can be paid;
- Accreditation may also be available.

How often does the volunteer activity tend to take place?

Volunteers make their own arrangements for visits with customers so you can fit your volunteering around your other commitments. All visits must be pre-arranged.
